

Son Do*Senior Designer*

A widely diverse and experienced lead designer in his 26-year career, Son has participated in the building design of a variety of project types including commercial office buildings and corporate campuses; retail town centers, urban mixed-use, corporate campuses, thematic entertainment centers, airport terminal facilities, educational and residential housing. Son Do was design director and senior project designer for several renowned national design firms.

Bachelor of Architecture, Southern California Institute of Architecture, (SCI-ARC)